

THEME:

The Story we're meant to have in Community > Philippians 1:27 & 2:2-3 > John 17:20 & 23

CONVERSATION:

1. Have you been a part of a random "group idea" that turned out way cooler than you expected?
 - a. How about a group idea that turned out worse than expected?
2. If you're a Chi Alpha veteran > what are some of your best XA community memories?
 - a. What are some ingredients that made those moments special?
3. How difficult is it to find & dive into real community?
 - a. What's involved in instigating community?
 - b. Could you see yourself as an instigator?
4. Check out what Jesus prays in John 17:20 & 23 >

"I am praying not only for these disciples but also for all who will ever believe in me through their message. I pray that they will all be one, just as you and I are one—as you are in me, Father, and I am in you. And may they be in us so that the world will believe you sent me.

May they experience such perfect unity that the world will know that you sent me and that you love them as much as you love me."

- a. Have you ever seen a community moment that was so deep down right it pointed to Jesus?
- b. Why aren't these moments more common?
- c. When the world around us is so fractured > how do we stay on point, rally around the cause & live in uncommon-unity?

RESPOND:

Remember > we're still looking for everyday action we can take to climb past self-interest toward humility & the interest of others >> having the mindset of Jesus.

What can we do as a small group to instigate deep down right community this semester?

Pray for each other
